

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Terry Allen Fjellanger's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Fjellanger devoted more than 23 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a leader in the Infantry and Engineer Fields, including service in Pipestone, Minnesota, and Madison, South Dakota, as well as 12 months of service in Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Fjellanger continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Staff Sergeant Terry Allen Fjellanger for more than 23 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

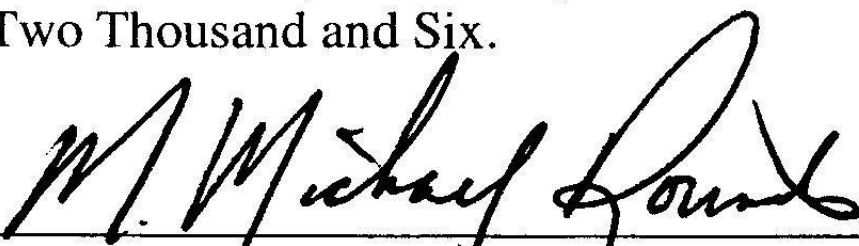

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 4, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

STAFF SERGEANT TERRY ALLEN FJELLANGER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
